

Democracy Corps Poll [September, 2007]

(Regardless of which (2008) candidate you currently support for President, how important is it that a candidate possess each of the following characteristics--is it very important, somewhat important, not too important, or not important at all?)...Favors expanding and improving voluntary universal pre-school and improved head start so all children arrive at school ready to learn

Subpopulation/Note: * = less than .5%.

50%	Very important
32	Somewhat important
10	Not too important
8	Not important at all
*	Don't know/Refused

Survey by Democracy Corps. Methodology: Conducted by Greenberg Quinlan Rosner Research, September 16-September 18, 2007 and based on telephone interviews with a national likely voters sample of 1,000. Likely voters are registered voters who voted in the 2004 election/weren't registered/ineligible/too young to vote and said they are probably or almost certain to vote in the 2008 election.[USGREEN.07DCSEP.R15]

Data provided by The Roper Center for Public Opinion Research, University of Connecticut.

Survey by Democracy Corps and Greenberg Quinlan Rosner Research, September 16-September 18, 2007.

Retrieved February 28, 2008 from the iPOLL Databank, The Roper Center for Public Opinion Research, University of Connecticut. <<http://www.ropercenter.uconn.edu/ipoll.html>>